Recommendations of the Tripartite Committee constituted during 1953 in the matter of raising the emoluments of textile mill workers.

The recommendations of the Tripartite Textile Enquiry Committee constituted in 1953 are only recommendatory in nature and are not statutory. The position has been explained by the Government in a Press Note, dated 21st December 1954, wherein it was stated that the ability to implement the measures recommended by the Committee depended on the financial capacity of each mill. The workers were also advised to have recourse to the normal channels under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, for redressing their grievances.

Based on the recommendations of the Tripartite Textile Enquiry Committee, the mill-owners and the employees in the Coimbatore district have entered into an agreement on 25th September 1956. The agreement provides, among other things, for a minimum wage of Rs. 30–1–0 and fixation of work-loads and the duties of the workers in the several departments. The managements and workers of Sree Meenakshi Mills, Madurai, the Loyal Textile Mills, Limited, Kovilpatti, and the Mettur Industries, Limited, Mettur Dam, also settled their dispute in their mills on similar lines. The management of the Jawahar Mills, Limited, Salem, proposed to hold discussions with workers with a view to arriving at a settlement on the lines of the Coimbatore agreement. The dispute in the Rajendra Mills was referred for adjudication. The award given by the Industrial Tribunal was confirmed
